

Essentials

EDITORS' PICKS — PERFECT 10 — FOUND ART — PALETTES — READING LIST

EDITORS' PICKS

SITTING PRETTY

Cane furnishings bring texture galore (page 20).
“Kirby” oak-and-cane chair with linen cushion, $2,187, Mitchell Gold + Bob Williams.

TREND

CANE, REIMAGINED

A staple of '70s décor, the plant-based beaut gets a modern upgrade.

BY KARA BUTTERFIELD

1 Massimo Zaniboni and Paola Bonazzi “Boheme” ash dining armchair with caning, $1,435, Roche Bobois. 2 Glass vase with seagrass rope and cane wicker, $80, Anaya. 3 Grazi “Cane” porcelain field tile, starting at $13 per square foot, Ann Sacks. 4 Market Set “Screen” metal suspension light with caning, €491, Voltex. 5 Mathieu Gustafsson for Design House Stockholm “Air” oak cabinet with rattan caning, $1,921, Finnish Design Shop. 6 SinCa Design Studio “Rattattan” white-oak mirror with rattan caning, $3,000, Salon Design. 7 Arte “Rattan” cane wallcovering, price upon request, the Martin Group. 8 Oscar Niemeyer for Etel “Rio” wood chaise lounge with caning and leather, price upon request, Espasso. 9 Jorge Arturo Ibarra “Augusto” walnut credenza with rattan-cane drawer fronts, $12,400, Luteca. 10 Becki Owens for Hudson Valley Lighting “Georgia” wall sconce with rattan caning, $450, Neena’s Lighting.

COURTESY PHOTOS. FOR DETAILS, SEE “RESOURCES”